

How can i register on Biesse Event Platform?

To register on the platform, click on "SIGN-UP" in the top right corner of the home page. Fill in the required fields to proceed with the registration. You will automatically receive an email that enables you to activate your account. Once the account activation is complete (carried out via the email you received), you can proceed with events accreditation. If you do not receive the activation email, check your spam folder.

How can I recover my password if i forget it?

When logging in, you will find the "forgot password" button

Why can't I access the Biesse Event Platform?

- Forgotten password: see above
- Invalid email address: make sure the email address you typed in is correct
- Account not active: if the account is not active, it means that you need to activate it. When you try to log in, an email containing the activate button will be sent to your inbox.

If instead your email address is not allowed access to the platform, please contact us for further info.

I have not received the confirmation email for the platform registration, what can i do?

Please check the spam inbox. You can receive another one by trying to enter the platform.
